OUTLINE

What to expect

This course will be a combination of theory and practical planning, covering the following topics:

- What does whole-school provision for gifted and talented students look like?
- How to make an impact in gifted and talented education at a whole-school level?
- Identifying barriers and exploring solutions to these
- Reviewing policy to support practice
- Roles and responsibilities throughout the school
- Communication and marketing for a clear, consistent and accurate message

“ I really enjoyed the course and felt inspired and motivated to address the gifted and talented students at my school. I will also be encouraging other admin members to attend the course so that we are all on the same page. Thank you Kylie for your professionalism and advice. **”

- Karen Rundle, Teacher (East Victoria Park PS, 2020)
