

Differentiating the English Curriculum for Diverse-Ability Students

Thursday 5 March 2020

3.45pm – 5.15pm (sign-in from 3.30pm)

Wesley College – Angelo Street, South Perth

Differentiation is a vital skill for all teachers in any Australian classroom, where the range of student abilities, interests and needs are so varied, including students with disability and those who may be gifted and/or talented. This workshop will examine the key elements of making differentiation work in a diverse-ability English classroom, including considering the role of assessment, thinking skills, questioning and responsive teaching.
